FAREWELL SOCIALS.

A farewell ball will be given in the First ward amusement hall tonight in honor of Reuben Evans, who is to depart on a mission to Germany. The Third ward has arranged to give a farewell party Friday evening Sept. 20th, in honor of Harry Nelson, also some of the other missionaries. The Fourth ward amusement hall will be the scene of a grand ball this evening to be given in honor of the missionaries who are to depart this month for Scotland on a mission.

HORSES MISSING.

Last evening Jesse Van der Hoff of North Ogden called at the sheriff's office and reported that he had two head of horses stolen from his band of horses Wednesday. The animals were ranging on the hills north of his farm, and were all right Tuesday. One of the horses stolen was a sorrel, weighing 1,200 pounds, a good driver, high headed, the other is a mare, weighing 1,200 pounds, iron grey also good driver. What convinces the owner that the animals were stolen is that the horse had a collar which was left with the other horses.

LOST PURSE.

A lady's black purse was reported to the police as lost last evening. The purse contained a $20 gold piece, about $5 in silver, three Pacific Express orders for $1, $2.50 and $5.00, also some of Dr. W. D. Wilson's professional cards, and a Canadian quarter with the initials L. V. Y. engraved on one side. A reward is offered for the return of the purse.

FOURTH DISTRICT COURT.

The following jurors for the October term of the Fourth district court were drawn yesterday; the venire is returnable Monday, October 7th:

R. C. Watkins, Joseph S. Strong, Jas. Clayton, Provo; Andrew Pryor, John Taylor, H. of Lewiston, Idaho.

John G. S. Wood, J. W. Bringham, John Parry, Thomas Dailin, Springdale, Santaquin; Thos. B. Parker, Ed. Barrett, American Fork; David McDaniel, Alpine; Samuel Marsh, John B. Barnett, Payson; James E. Boyack, Thistle; Henry L. Cook, Groves; Joseph Adams, Pleasanton.

In the case of McBride & Barnes vs. Western, Moline, Plow company, in which plaintiff seeks to collect $33 for advertising contracted by J. W. Caldwell, last year, while he was agent for the company in this city, evidence for plaintiff was heard yesterday, and the case was postponed to the 21st, to permit defendants to introduce evidence. The case is one appealed from the justice's court in which judgment was given for plaintiffs.

In the matter of the estate of Charlotte Bowers, deceased, an order of final discharge of administratrix was made.

Lars Peter Johnson, of American Fork, has filed an answer and cross complaint in the suit for divorce commenced by his wife, Kirsten Johnson, denying the allegations of the plaintiff's complaint charging cruelty; admitting that in May, 1900, after plaintiff had called him vile names and falsely accused him of crimes and accusations, plaintiff knew to be false, he lightly slapped her face with his open hand. This, it is alleged has been condoned by plaintiff, and that plaintiff afterwards asked defendant to desert him, and that plaintiff did so. In his cross complaint defendant asks that he be granted a divorce on the grounds of cruelty, consisting of plaintiff calling defendant vile names and falsely accusing him of crimes, and that plaintiff be required to execute a deed to defendant for certain real estate in American Fork, or so much thereof as the court may deem just, which defendant has refused to do.

The case of B. C. Carroll, on the charge of assault with intent to murder his wife, on the night of Sept. 6, at Gunnison, was the next case to be heard, and the testimony in this case was commenced shortly before the noon hour. Carroll and his wife and possibly another person, who has not yet arrived, will be the witnesses for defendant, while there are at least six witnesses for the prosecution, known to be respected citizens of Gunnison.

TENNANT-EVANS NUPTIALS.

Miss Belle Tennant, daughter of ex-Mayor Tennant of this city, and Ernest Evans, recently a resident of this city, were married last evening by Bishop William T. Reid. The affair was very quiet and possibly because of the condition of the bride's mother, who is at the present time seriously ill, no one except the immediate relatives knew of the marriage until today.

A QUICK CAPTURE.

George W. Gee had a horse and buggy stolen Wednesday night, and yesterday morning notice was given to the sheriff's office. Last evening Constable W. B. Starr, of the Park City band, who had been notified of the theft, saw the horse and buggy in coming down Provo canyon and notified Sheriff Storrs, who went up the canyon and brought the outfit back to the city. A young man about twenty-four years of age, who gives his name as Harper Forsythe. He had taken the rig to the canyon and kept in hiding during the day, intending to go to Salt Lake and night and dispose of the property. Forsythe is a very dark complexioned and says his mother is Spanish. He will not say where his home is. He wears a soldier's khaki uniform.

GARDEN CITY NOTES.

U. S. Marshal Thompson, of Oklahoma, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Beck of this city.

Don. C. Strong, of Alpine, who sustained a serious and from a hay fork about two weeks ago, has surprised his friends by his rapid recovery. He is now able to be about.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Graham went to American Fork today to attend the funeral of Bishop W. D. Robinson, who had been notified of the theft, saw the horse and buggy in coming down Provo canyon and notified Sheriff Storrs, who went up the canyon and brought the outfit back to the city. A young man about twenty-four years of age, who gives his name as Harper Forsythe. He had taken the rig to the canyon and kept in hiding during the day, intending to go to Salt Lake and night and dispose of the property. Forsythe is a very dark complexioned and says his mother is Spanish. He will not say where his home is. He wears a soldier's khaki uniform.

A trotting match, best three in five, has been arranged between Watkins (Provo) mare, Black Bess, and Mendenhall's (Springville) mare Michael. The race is for $100 and will take place on Barton's track in this city, on September 27th.

Walter Scott, of the Second ward, has sold $251 worth of potatoes from a half acre and the neighbors. The potato crop in this vicinity has, however, not been good and the ground from which Mr. Scott secured the above value yielded a far better crop than other parts of Mr. Scott's potato field.

W. H. Rager, of Thistle, was fined $5 yesterday in Justice Noon's court for taking coal from the R. G. W. yard at Thistle. Mr. Rager explained that a tacit permission had been given him by one of the train hands, and that there was no criminal intent. Special Agent Brown, who caused the arrest, also stated that the company did not desire to see the defendant severely punished, but wanted the practice stopped. Mr. Rager paid the fine.

The 14-year-old son of Fred Reed of Holden, had his leg broken about a month ago by being thrown from a horse. It was set in such a manner that it grew crooked and the patient was brought to Provo, where Drs. Allen and Taylor broke the limb and reset it very successfully.

LEVAN.

Young People's Social—Visit Abruptly Ended.

Special Correspondence.

Levan, Juab Co., Sept. 12.—The young people of our little town had a very enjoyable time last evening at a lawn party which was given by Messrs. James and Earl Jackson at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Jackman. During the evening songs and instrumental selections were rendered. A sumptuous repast and ice-cream were served. The lively crowd returned to their homes till an early hour.

Mrs. Otto Witbeck of Salt Lake City, received a telegram this morning from her husband stating that he had been seriously injured, while working at the first department. Mrs. Witbeck has been visiting relatives and friends for a short time.
